Description

Let's start by defining what a portfolio website is. At its most basic form, a portfolio website provides professional information about an individual or a company and presents a showcase of their work. ... To supply site visitors with information about the individual or company. To showcase work

The screenshot shows a professional portfolio website. At the top, there is a dark header bar with a small logo and a search bar. Below the header, a large, bold title 'I AM A DESIGNER' is displayed in a light blue font. The main content area is divided into several sections. On the left, there is a 'About' section with a short bio and a 'Services' section listing 'Graphic Design', 'Web Design', 'Branding', 'UI/UX', and 'Photography'. The central part of the page features a large image of a person working on a laptop, with the text 'Graphic Design' overlaid. To the right, there is a 'Portfolio' section with a grid of thumbnail images. At the bottom, there is a 'Contact' section with a form and a 'Get in touch' button.
